

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. MERRICK

1 discussion --

2 COMMISSIONER I know.

3 A. -- later on. So, you know, I'm -- he's not going to 4 set me out.

5 COMMISSIONER Look --

6 A. That's the problem. I might have had a discussion.

7 COMMISSIONER -- Mr. Cameron, nobody is trying to trap
8 you, all --

9 A. Mr. Merrick has tried this for every day I've been 10 here, he --

11 COMMISSIONER Well, that's a matter of perception.

12 A. Yes.

13 COMMISSIONER I don't perceive that myself.

14 A. All I can say, Commissioner, is I'm going to do my 15 very best to tell it as I remember it. And I may have 16 been involved a discussion; that's what I'm saying. It's 17 pretty -- you know, it's pretty simple. I may have 18 been --

19 COMMISSIONER Okay.

20 A. -- but I can't recall right now. It's so simple.

21 COMMISSIONER I think that's exactly what Mr. Merrick
22 has asked you. You have no recollection right now,
23 that's all.

24 MR. MERRICK And I take it that's it?

25 A. What I'm saying is that those issues, it seems to
