

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. MERRICK

1 companies." And I can I only assume that she is 2 indicating by that that she doesn't recommend it.

3 In fact, if you turn over to the next page after she 4 has listed the four points that Westray has been looking 5 for, she makes the further comment, "The points I have 6 outlined are major departures from our own practices and 7 from the rest of Canada." So that I'm taking from her 8 memo that she is not in favour of, or is certainly not 9 recommending that Westray's request be granted.

10 I assume from our earlier exchange that you have no
11 recollection today of this position being adopted by Ms.
12 Hood?

13 A. Ms. Hood? No, I might even not have seen this one,
14 I'm not sure. Who did it go to? Department --

15 Q. It would have gone to --

16 A. -- of Mines. Yeah. So I might have never read that 17 memo.

18 Q. Do you have a -- let me turn you to page 23.
19 Actually, you can start on page 21, I think, because 20 that's the start of the document, so you can identify it.
21 It's a Memorandum to Cabinet from Mr. Streach. And if 22 you turn to page 23, he's recited provisions of the 23 arrangements and then he sums it up, he says, "Westray 24 are also asking for the following concessions," and then 25 he lists A, B, C. And the C one says, "That the current
