

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. MERRICK

1 Q. Did you express it to him -- did you go up and meet
2 with him to express those comments --

3 A. I don't recall going to meet with him on that. I --
4 no.

5 Q. All right. Let me just take you to two more
6 documents on this point. Stay in that tab 3. Can you
7 turn to page 3.

9 Q. This is a memorandum whose author we haven't been
10 able to identify, but it's to Kurt Forgaard in Curragh.
11 The author of the document apparently spoke with you, is 12 recording a conversation that he had with you. In the 13 middle of the paragraph he reports that apparently you
14 stated that you had written to Brian Mulroney, and the 15 reason -- that there had been a delay and why.

16 I take it that, on occasion, you had written about
17 those kinds of issues?

18 A. Not very often, I don't think. I don't know if I
19 ever sent that letter or not. If it's in the files,
20 certainly I sent it; and, if not, then I didn't. So I
21 can't guarantee that that letter was sent, but --

22 Q. But you have nothing to dispute the accuracy of what
23 apparently was a conversation with you?

24 A. Well, I don't even know who wrote this. That's one
25 of the problems. But, clearly, I did speak with Ernie
