

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. MERRICK

1 A. Well, let's read on and see if we can find out.

2 Q. All right, in paragraph 7, it says: "In summary,
3 the conclusion said that DEVCO is nothing more than a
4 political arm of the Liberal Party. From six senior
5 positions all but one are big Liberal supporters. All of 6 the senior hiring and purchasing personnel are Liberals,
7 thus ensuring that Liberals are hired and materials are
8 purchased from Liberal-supporting companies. The report
9 recommends a major housecleaning of the DEVCO operation."
10 Can you recall any report such as that that you would 11 have discussed with Mr. Phillips?

12 A. It wasn't a confidential report. It was one of -- I
13 guess we'd say a Party member in the Cape Breton area
14 actually took the time to compile all the names of 15 management at DEVCO and sent it to a number of people.
16 It wasn't a confidential report. It was just an effort -
17 - someone took a month or two and compiled a bunch of 18 information about DEVCO. I think it might have been Mike
19 MacDonald, I'm not sure, to tell the truth about it, but 20 it was a Party supporter.

21 Q. Let me tell you the implication that one can draw
22 from this and give you the chance to respond to it. It
23 sounds like you were engaging in this "swirl of politics"
24 involving DEVCO. Can you respond to that?

25 A. Well, it's interesting you'd accuse me of that and
