

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. MERRICK

1 A. -- I couldn't get any and so yesterday I mentioned -
2 - I mentioned that we gave Michelin Tire a loan in that 3 same period of time, about 10 percent of the total
4 project for $43 1/2 million, interest free for 15 years.

5 MR. MERRICK Yes, and we got your evidence on that 6 yesterday.

7 COMMISSIONER Okay, you have your answer.

8 A. Yeah.

9 MR. MERRICK Mr. Cameron --

10 A. -- so --

11 MR. MERRICK -- can I bring you back --

12 A. -- you know, I think -- I think, when I've been 13 accused of we didn't -- we weren't tough, we didn't do a 14 good deal, I think it would be awfully important now to 15 say, "Well, if we weren't tough and didn't do a good 16 deal, it sure -- it should stick out like a sore thumb," 17 but it won't.

18 MR. MERRICK Can I bring you back to the point of my 19 questions which is not what were the final terms of 20 various deals, it's the fact that one can draw the 21 implication from all the evidence that the Federal 22 Government was attempting to bargain very strongly with 23 Curragh on issues that are of importance to any 24 Government dealing with public funds.

25 And what we seem to have on the evidence is Curragh
