

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. MERRICK

1 of fact in your question and you're saying, "Do you agree
2 with that." And they're loaded to get me in a corner and 3 get me in trouble.

4 Q. I'm not trying to get you in any trouble, Mr.
5 Cameron --

6 A. Yes, you are, Mr. Merrick --

7 Q. -- I'm trying to --

8 A. -- you're loading your --

9 Q. -- determine how we can change the system.

10 A. You're loading your questions. Well, I'd like to 11 talk about how we're going to change the system. But 12 you're loading your questions to try to get the answer
13 that you want and I just can't let you do that. I don't 14 agree with your last statement, Mr. Merrick, I don't.

15 Q. Well, let me try it on you this way. In light of 16 what you have told us, and your position on 17 responsibility, and in light of what some other officials
18 have said about where responsibility should lie, do you 19 agree that it's perhaps time that whatever you think or 20 the bureaucrats think, it's time that we require the 21 responsibility rest with the person at the top?

22 A. Well, it's a big system, and if you're going to have 23 everything rest with the Premier on top, he's going to be 24 an awful busy person.

25 Q. Don't you think --
