

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. WELLS

1 legislation, but we in Labour understand that to be
2 Michelin and their trade secrets concerns.

3 COMMISSIONER Are we going to relate that somehow to the 4 Terms of Reference, Mr. Wells?

5 MR. WELLS Well, I'm asking him whether he was aware of 6 what this province, back in 1988, was doing in the way of 7 health and safety.

8 A. I'm not sure, Mr. Commissioner.

9 COMMISSIONER That's --

10 A. When I think about all the legislation that went
11 through in all those years, I wouldn't want to say I'm 12 not aware. If I talk to the gentlemen, I might be able 13 to recall that. But right now, I'm not sure.

14 COMMISSIONER Okay, thank you.

15 MR. WELLS Can you understand that from a worker's point
16 of view, when they see this Province deviating from a
17 piece of negotiated legislation, a country-wide piece of 18 legislation, that we have some scepticism about the 19 Government will in this province?

20 A. You may have. I don't know.

21 Q. This morning we were talking about the Premier's
22 responsibility under the -- and the Deputy Minister's and
23 the Minister's responsibilities, and if I'm understanding
24 you correctly, you felt that the Premier couldn't really
25 be responsible if he didn't know what was going -- what
