

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. WELLS

1 they're abiding by reasonable rules, that they're going
2 to provide education, those kinds of things. That's a
3 new legislation, and I understood that the unions in the 4 province agreed with that. So if you go at that concept,
5 I don't think you can go with the other concept that 6 somehow if anything goes wrong, then it's going -- we're 7 going to blame it on the politicians. I think we should 8 tell politicians before they put their name on the 9 ballot, that those are the new rules, if we are. Because 10 I think a lot of them would think twice.

11 Q. Mr. Cameron, I don't think that there's any 12 suggestion that all health and safety accidents in the 13 province are going to be blamed on the politicians of the 14 day at the top. I think what we're talking about is the 15 responsibility to ensure that where there are laws, that 16 they are enforced.

17 A. Yes, sir.

18 Q. You can agree with that?

19 A. Yes, sir.

20 Q. And so that when we talk about internal 21 responsibility system, that the employer in that 22 workplace, who is the ultimate -- has the ultimate 23 responsibility in that workplace in that it's his, will 24 understand that he is responsible and there will be 25 ramifications if he does not comply. Would that not be
