

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. HEBERT

1 you're saying is a repeat of your direct testimony, and
2 we don't have to hear it again. I'm interested in
3 specific questions, and if you could just stick with
4 that. Did you speak with anybody within the Department
5 of Labour with respect to roof falls?

6 A. No.

7 Q. Other than the Minister?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Do you recall having specific discussions with the 10 Minister of Labour with respect to roof falls?

11 A. I would say it was discussed with the Minister, and 12 more Ministers than that.

13 Q. And did the Minister of Labour report to Cabinet
14 with respect to the roof falls?

15 A. I'm sure it must have been discussed, and I really
16 shouldn't be talking about that, but I'm sure there must
17 have been a discussion in Cabinet. This was something
18 that we weren't used to.

19 Q. Certainly.

20 A. We didn't realize they were going on at DEVCO on a
21 regular basis and that it was part of mining.

22 Q. Okay. Now you indicated that a -- in your opinion,
23 that the political aura surrounding the Westray project
24 may have led an inspector to be more vigilant with 25 respect to safety issues. I think that was --
