

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. HEBERT

- 1 A. Well --
- 2 Q. -- suggesting?
- 3 A. -- again, the company was saying that they were 4 required to actually put the cash up so it would be 5 available if something went wrong. They had to take the 6 cash from another operation --
- 7 Q. In addition to the --
- 8 A. -- to guarantee --
- 9 Q. -- nine million that they --
- 10 A. That was --
- 11 Q. -- already put in?
- 12 A. That was their argument. But we were not involved
13 directly; that was not a concern of ours. That was a 14 concern --
- 15 Q. I guess the --
- 16 A. -- of the Federal Government.
- 17 Q. Certainly. And the concern that I had was that you,
18 as this former Minister of Industry, seemed to be siding
19 with the company on that issue, and I just wanted to 20 clarify it, whether or not you would have been -- was 21 that the way the Province was dealing with these sorts of 22 things --
- 23 A. I would --
- 24 Q. -- back in the day --
- 25 A. I would have preferred if the Federal Government
