

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. HEBERT

1 hours before it exploded. And if you read his statement,
2 you will see that Mick Franks said the way it was 3 adjusted, he didn't know what it was set at.

4 Q. Certainly.

5 A. Now I would think that that was a pretty important 6 item and --

7 Q. And that's been in evidence --

8 A. -- and -- and --

9 Q. -- Mr. Cameron.

10 A. -- and Mr. Arnie Smith is still alive. He's not one 11 of the victims.

12 Q. Certainly.

13 A. And to be accused of being evil, to bring such an 14 important issue to the public attention and then be 15 accused that we were trying to blame the dead miners when 16 Mr. Smith is still alive and well --

17 Q. Well, that was my point, Mr. Cameron --

18 A. -- is a stretch of someone's --

19 Q. -- because--

20 A. -- imagination.

21 Q. Yeah, because you indicated that what happened in 22 the mine that morning was the cause of the explosion.
23 And the evidence, as I understood it, was that Mr. Smith 24 had done something and was not anywhere near the mine at 25 the time of the explosion, that that had happened the day
