

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. HEBERT

1 I'm saying those people that changed the meters --

2 Q. You're saying Arnie Smith?

3 A. -- and pressed the re-set buttons, did those
4 things --

5 Q. You don't --

6 A. -- they should be responsible. It shouldn't be the 7 inspector that wasn't there. It shouldn't be
8 politicians. Those people that overrode those safety
9 devices should be held responsible.

10 Q. You have no idea, Mr. Cameron, whether or not anyone
11 overrode a safety button --

12 A. They were --

13 Q. -- on May 9th.

14 A. That's sworn testimony.

15 Q. On May the 9 -- the 26 men are dead. You have no
16 evidence that the people in that mine overrode --

17 A. There's lot of evidence --

18 Q. -- a safety button.

19 A. -- to say that that meter was still not adjusted
20 back.

21 Q. We -- I have your point. Thank you, Mr. Cameron.

22 COMMISSIONER We will recess for ten minutes and then,
23 Mr. Roberts, you're on.

24 INQUIRY RECESSED (TIME: 3:23 p.m.)

25 INQUIRY RESUMED (TIME: 3:34 p.m.)
