

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. ROBERTS

1 with --

2 A. Pardon?

3 Q. -- that interview and --

4 COMMISSIONER But that's in evidence already --

5 A. I see.

6 COMMISSIONER -- Mr. Cameron.

7 MR. ROBERTS -- Mr. Cameron gave a speech yesterday and
8 I'm allowed to ask him a few questions.

9 COMMISSIONER No, I think that's fair. It will --

10 MR. ROBERTS The evidence, sir, is -- and that --

11 A. But that says the very opposite of what he's saying.

12 Q. No, no.

13 COMMISSIONER Okay. Okay, that's enough.

14 MR. ROBERTS Mr. Cameron, you don't understand the 15 evidence before the Inquiry. The evidence is very 16 clear --

17 A. Oh, I understand very well.

18 Q. No, the evidence is very clear that the reset button
19 was used from time to time by continuous miner operators
20 to gather coal that was already cut and on the floor.
21 The evidence is very clear that it was never used to cut
22 coal from the face. And Mr. Martin's statement --

23 A. You should read this.

24 Q. And Mr. -- Mr. Martin's statement and Mr. Franks'
25 statement is quite consistent with the evidence given
