

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. ROBERTS

1 here.

2 A. It was pressed so many times, they blew the breaker
3 switch over and over, and over --

4 Q. Mr. --

5 A. -- and over again.

6 Q. Mr. Franks' evidence is -- his statement is
7 absolutely consistent with the evidence here. And, sir,
8 are you aware that Mr. Franks did not testify to the use
9 of the reset button when he was here?

10 A. All I can tell you is that they said it was done
11 over and over and over again, enough to blow the breaker
12 switch.

13 Q. You have no direct knowledge --

14 A. And that's not just gathering --

15 Q. You have no direct knowledge --

16 A. -- a little bit of loose coal.

17 Q. -- on which you can contradict the testimony of 18 these miners who came here and testified under oath, do
19 you?

20 A. [No verbal response].

21 Q. Okay. That's your answer.

22 A. Did they lie?

23 Q. Are you -- well, you've already suggested that they 24 did not lie and you have no direct knowledge. I will 25 move on to another aspect of your statement from