

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. ROBERTS

1 Q. What's the -- I'm interested in your source for --

2 A. I'm interested --

3 Q,. -- this information?

4 A. -- in why you want to sweep all this under the 5 table.

6 Q. I'm not sweeping anything under the table, sir. You
7 gave an explanation of the explosion yesterday which my
8 client finds very difficult to accept. And I want to try
9 to explore it with you, and that's what I'm doing now.

10 A. Well, I find it very difficult to blame inspectors
11 and the Department of -- Department employees for actions
12 that were very unsafe.

13 Q. We're dealing with proof and evidence, Mr. Cameron,
14 not with some theory --

15 A. Well, from your point of view.

16 Q. -- or rumour that's being floated from somewhere
17 else. I want to ask you now, and I'm going to suggest to 18 you that your explanation for the causes of the 19 explosion, which you've repeated several times, is very 20 similar to the explanation that Mr. Phillips has been 21 stating publicly the last few weeks.

22 A. I didn't -- I didn't get my explanation from Mr.
23 Phillips.

24 Q. Did you --

25 A. I asked -- I asked for maps because I knew what
