

MR. CAMERON, EXAM. BY MR. ROBERTS

1 Phillips. I got them from the Inquiry.

2 Q. You asked him did you think they were relevant
3 somehow to the Inquiry?

4 A. I just thought it was another example where politics
5 is even -- even interfered in a system of justice.

6 Q. So you're saying here that the political process,
7 political partisanship, interfered in the laying of
8 criminal charges against Gerald Phillips?

9 A. I'm saying -- I'm saying that there's evidence that
10 even there's political fingerprints on the criminal side
11 too.

12 Q. Have you seen partisanship rear its head in any
13 other way that you haven't explored with us in the last
14 two days?

15 A. Partisanship?

16 Q. Yeah, is Boudreau behind this Inquiry?

17 A. I appointed an Inquiry; you should know that.

18 Q. So he's not?

19 A. No, I appointed the Inquiry.

20 Q. Okay. But --

21 COMMISSIONER Don't expect me to thank you for that, Mr.
22 Cameron.

23 MR. ROBERTS Now you --

24 A. I understand.

25 MR. ROBERTS -- you say --
